

I think that any advancement in our ability to communicate should be protected as long as it is a true advancement.